

Job Opportunity

Aurat Foundation, under its Gender Equity Program (GEP) intends to hire a technical editor and script and screenplay editor. Summarized TORs are given hereunder: .

Position	Terms of References
Technical Editor for Cartoon Series	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Work in close coordination with the Communications Team and the sub-grantee• Carry out time to time review of the models• Assess the quality of animation• Review relevance of the produced characters with the story line and target audience• Keep a check on the quality of sound, editing, mixing and rendering• Check sound quality and music• Provide technical assessment of the final product• Visit the sub-grantee with the Communications Specialist for technical approval of the production as require
Script and Screen Play Editor for Cartoon Series	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Work in close coordination with the Communications Team and the sub-grantee• Review and provide feedback on the scripts of 13 episodes of cartoon series on GBV• See if the screenplay and scripts are in line with the objective of the grant• Critically review the language used for the scripts• Critically review the background, story line, character presentation and models of the series

Please submit your CV providing complete information on personal, academic and professional matters with two references: to the email: gep.jobs@af.org.pk , not later than 30th December 2011.