A Glimpse into AF Library

Aurat Publication and Information Service Foundation, established in 1986 under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, is a national, non-profit, non-governmental organization committed to working for women's empowerment and democratic governance in Pakistan. It has its headquarters in Islamabad, five regional offices in Lahore, Karachi, Peshawar, Quetta and Gilgit and 25 Field Offices with over 700 employees. It is a major support organization for civil society organizations, federal, provincial and local governments and political parties, besides other public and private institutions.

Aurat Foundation acts as a catalyst to enable critical groups to influence policy, legislation and programmes for greater economic and political power for women in society. In advocacy on women's rights issues, Aurat Foundation has strategized to develop linkages with grassroots organizations and macro-level decision-makers. A mutually collaborative relationship has also been developed with various departments and organs of the Government of Pakistan.
